Excerpt from A Sermon on the Choice of Moses In the chapter, from which these words are taken, the apostle describes the nature and effects of true faith, from the example of ancient believers. He shows, that their faith had a powerful influence on their conduct. Among those persons, ?who performed, through faith, important services and endured severe afflictions, Moses has an eminent character. Of him the apostle writes, By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh s daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. This account of Moses shows, that he chose the afflictions of a saint rather than the enjoyments of a sinner. In our attention to this subject, it is proposed, I. To inquire what Moses, as a sinner, might have enjoyed. The words of our text imply, that...
