Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is a must read for every teacher to help you get from where you are to where you want to be. It provides a unique blend of the author's 32 years in education, along with his training as a martial artist. As an educator he was a high school teacher, assistant high school principal and an elementary school principal. The 37 teacher weapons included in this book have been used effectively throughout his career. If you enjoyed this book and would like to learn more, consider using Paul Morelli as an educational consultant or speaker. His passion is working to help teachers and administrators achieve excellence. He customizes programs toward their needs, and gives seminars and workshops on many topics. Use the following information to contact him and learn more about the services that he provides. This book is for all teachers from the novice to the experienced. It helps you to thrive and not just survive. Once I started reading it, I could not put it down. Sue Wold -Special Education Teacher If teaching year in and year out has you feeling down or discouraged, read this book, and get equipped with these powerful teacher weapons. Elizabeth Potenza - Speech/Language Teacher.
