The other two were named by the French in 1767--the westernmost, Inaccessible Island, and the smallest, or southernmost, Nightingale Island. The groupe appears to have been discovered by the Portuguese in their earlier navigations, and was further explored and described by the Dutch in 1643, and by the French in 1767. We passed the parallel in which they lie (to the westward) on Wednesday, the 12th...
