Love in a Time of Paranoia is a truly poignant collection, where every word serves a purpose. A lexical surgeon, Good takes little to no time to cut into a moment, revealing the heart as it lays there, exposed and previously misdiagnosed. You are nothing more than an intellectual intern on this journey-you will stand there as he thrusts you into a scene, as he steps back and watches you manipulate the power within a split second. You will be tested mentally, emotionally. So the question becomes not of Good s literary aptitude, but of your ability to appreciate his precision, his analysis. Laced with quick, clean incisions, his poems are a crisp reflection of a skilled poet and I would wholeheartedly recommend this collection to anyone in the mood to be moved. -Mimi Ferebee, Red Ochre Lit.
