Excerpt: . there was evidence that the parties named had acted as Commissioners; but this proof referred only to a time after the date of the signature; and there was no evidence of the parties having acted as Commissioners before. It was objected that, without such proof, the evidence could not be received. The learned Judge admitted it; and the plaintiff had a verdict. Gunning now moved for a new trial, and contended that the Signature was not sufficiently proved to go to the jury, unless the Party were shown to have been a Commissioner at or before the time of signing. (Lonn DsNMaN, Ch. J.: When we have the handwriting of a person proved to have been a Commissioner, is there any authority for requiring proof of his having acted as Commissioner at the time when he signed? If he is shown to have...
