PERSEA BOOKS INC, United States, 2012. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 163 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A highly-entertaining collection of sports journalism from a forty-year veteran. For decades, Pat Jordan has been one of the best sports writers in America. This engrossing book compiles twenty-six features from throughout his career, among them his most famous magazine pieces and a small selection of previously unpublished gems. Included is an exciting selection of Jordan's profiles of sports legends such as Wilt Chamberlain, Tom Seaver, Greg Louganis, Venus and Serena Williams--each one frank, insightful, and salty--as well as an extraordinary sampling of the pieces with which Jordan made his name: those about athletes who are obscure, unsuccessful, or have fallen from grace. Whether writing about the marginal, the famous, or the infamous, Jordan displays a hard-boiled, highly literate prose and a capacity to convey how the idiosyncratic mindsets of athletes lead to success or failure. The Best Sports Writing of Pat Jordan covers a variety of mainstream sports and some less athletic (but equally competitive) pastimes like poker, pool, and child beauty pageants. A QA with Jordan gives intriguing behind-the-scenes scoops on select stories. Fun, revealing, and very readable, this book represents the best work from a standout in his field. Highlights from The Best Sports Writing of Pat Jordan : Trouble in Paradise : L.A. Dodger all-star (and presumed future-U.S. Senator) Steve Garvey takes a hit to his public image--from his unsatisfied wife. Roger Clemens Refuses to Grow Up : The greatest pitcher of his generation is really just a big baby. The Outcast : O. J. Simpson stars as O. J. Simpson and has a thing for Jennifer Love Hewitt. Of Memory, Death, and the Automobile : Phil Hill, Renaissance Formula 1 racecar driver, obsesses over...
