Simeon Johnson s exuberant celebration of the invisible people who make up our society s support system is nothing short of marvelous. He gives us a unique glimpse into the daily lives of the hardworking men and women around us - people who deserve greater recognition for their invaluable contributions. -Willie E. Gary Willie E. Gary, founder of Gary, Williams, Parenti, Finney, Lewis, McManus, Watson Speranto, L.C., grew up in a shack he shared with his migrant worker parents and his ten sisters and brothers. The first black male from Indiantown, FL, to attend college, he is now an internationally renowned attorney, multi-millionaire business leader, and philanthropist. Everyone deserves to be recognized for their contribution, since we each play an integral part in the larger fabric of life. Simeon Johnson captured this beautifully in his book. It s a wonderful read! About the Author Prolific author Simeon W. Johnson is a successful entrepreneur with a book and gift boutique: .
