My dear, what superhuman prescience told you that I wanted my watch in exactly thirty minutes? for it was then--or about ten minutes before that, to speak with precision--that I discovered I had left it. It was no prescience: it was a man. He couldn t have stolen it, because you sent it to me; but why in the name of the Ganges did you do that? It cost me five hundred dollars, including chain and charms, a stem-winder, and regulated the sun to the fiftieth part of a second. But didn t you send for it? Never! By a man with yellowish hair and blue eyes, who said he worked in the office? Never:...
