What does it take to build a happy marriage that lasts in a world where divorce, affairs and self-righteousness are prevalent? There are solutions to establish a marriage strong in love, support and respect, as Christian author Karen Stokes reveals in her new book. In 10-4: The Key to a Happy Marriage, Karen presents her advice at ten personal relationship survival skills and four basic principles of commitment, trust, honesty and communication as useful keys to an effective marriage. She focuses on the importance of communication, trust, honesty and commitment being given and another resolution, that when used can change a relationship back into having love. With mature and supportive spouses will also come caring partners that will be able to handle the challenges of life and the challenges of marriage. The issues between couples can be saved and restored in today's marriages through a basic fundamental foundation developed on principles, effort and love.
